

It has come to my attention that the Consumer Bankers Association is challenging Indiana's Telephone Privacy law.

I want the Privacy Law to remain intact, with no new imposition of the federal "established business relationship" exemption placed on Indiana consumers.

It's my telephone, it's my home, I have the right to my privacy. Do not weaken our current protection under the law.